

SUNDAY SCHOOL TAKE HOME PAGE

To parents:

This page lets you know what your child learned in Sunday school today. In addition, you will find this week's memory verse, a suggested activity, and a short prayer to reinforce the lesson. Being involved and interacting with your child can be very rewarding for both of you.

What we learned:

Today the children learned the importance of giving credit, praise, or glory, to whom it is due, especially to God. According to James 4:13-17, when we do not give credit or glory to the proper person and give it to ourselves instead, it is considered boasting, and that is a sin.

Memory Verses:

"Why, you do not even know what will happen tomorrow. What is your life? You are a mist that appears for a little while and then vanishes." James 4:14 NIV

Practice this verse several times with your child during the week. This will not only help him or her remember the verse, but it will also help to reinforce what he or she learned during class.

Suggested Parent/Child Activity:

Brainstorm with your child and make two lists. On one, list examples of people who deserve credit for helping us, and what it is they do to deserve that credit. On the other, list the different things God does for us where He deserves the glory. Discuss how we can show our appreciation for what others do for us, and how we can honor God for what He does.

Daily Prayer:

Dear Lord. Thank You for everything You do for me. I know sometimes I forget that You are the one in control, and I become boastful and full of pride. Please forgive me for that Lord. Starting today, I want to give You the honor and glory You deserve. Amen.
